Starbound ancient language translation

Starbound > General Discussions > Topic Details how to use the ancient language in the chat I know that some players were done with things (are rarity though) I was wounded how i would do it, I google it for an hour and the best I got is to use unicode (specifically utf-8) how to do it I already know ^yellow; It's something like this, or do I have to do something more complicated? Note: This is only used for reporting spam, advertising and problematic (harassment, warfare or rude) posts. From the star line - The Stellar Wiki Ancient Alphabet is a code that is sold in Treasure trophies at night. It provides the key to translating the ancient language found on Barca and other ancient places. To purchase, you need a left translation wheel and a right translation wheel. Content History elementName: ancientalphabet Spawn Command /spawnitem ancientalphabet-codex File Name: ancientalphabet.codex File Path: assets/codex/other Ancient alphabet was invented for the game Starbound. It is used to write ancient language and is actually an alternate english code. Mention the functions Type of writing system: alphabet. Write direction: Left-to-right in horizontal lines or in clockwise circles on some structures. I used to write English. The ancient alphabet has no upper or minor letters or punctuation marks. The Ancients used a base count system on 10. The ancients' internal origins were a very advanced race and left behind numerous structures throughout the universe. Their alphabet can be found in most of these structures and can be translated to reveal some of their background stories. Sample text Translation We have progressed as we have been designed. We've come to a big friendly. It reminds us of the ultimate plague, a threat to all who thrive. The big one had a plan. Key doors for the chosen ones. But we were builders, not heroes. In case the plan failed, we cut out the Infinite Sanctuary to save the little life we could. We're meant not to stay like the Great. His legacy will be his legacy, and our will be our temples.
